When consumers talk, Apex delivers.

Proprietary research is at the heart of every product design decision we make. This consumer-centric approach allows us to develop products your customers desire. From our new patented sleeve and coupling designs to our (NTS) No Torsion System that prevents kinking and twisting, all Apex hoses are built to sell. It's how we stay ahead of the competition and drive sales for our retail partners. For quality, value and innovative engineering, all hoses lead to Apex.

Sleek new rigid sleeve locks into coupling preventing kinking at faucet. Patented aluminum couplings are easier to handle and crush-resistant.

New and improved heavy gauge power coil locks into coupling preventing kinking at faucet. The patented, industrial-grade aluminum couplings are easier to handle and crush-resistant.
