Table Fire® Series
A cure for the boring patio table.

Umbrella-hole firebowls are a great enhancement for any outdoor patio table with an umbrella hole in the middle. Simple assembly and installation of these units make them some of our most versatile outdoor heating products. Our Table Fire® series products connect directly through an umbrella hole, while the propane tank stays hidden beneath the table.

Each umbrella hole firebowl comes with a preassembled connection that fits a standard umbrella hole, and each 20 lb. propane tank model is equipped with a quick disconnect hose fitting.

*Available for 1 lb. and 20 lb. propane tanks – BTUs vary depending on design and fuel source.

Gas connection feeds directly through most pre-existing umbrella holes in outdoor patio tables

Dual Layer Heat Screen
The dual heat radiation screens provide more heat output than single layer screens. Dual screens on the top end of the heater provide more opportunity for heat output.

Large Glass Flame Cylinder
A carefully engineered oversized glass cylinder allows for a larger flame to be produced. The larger cylinder allows for the flame to reflect more heat and light creating a multi-dimensional heating experience.

Secondary Air Inlet
A second air inlet pushes air into the heater body, providing more combustion within the glass cylinder. Increased combustion equals a higher heat output.
